COLIN CARTER & BRIAN COOK

The past year, our 160th anniversary, has been an incredibly eventful time for our club.

We qualified for the AFL finals for the 14th time in 16 years. In fact, all four of our teams, AFL, AFLW, VFL, VFLW qualified for the finals, a first for any club. And for the first time since 2008 we finished on top of the AFL ladder at the end of the Home & Away Season.

After progressing to the preliminary final we fought the eventual premiers Richmond throughout a classic game before falling just short.

A question we get asked after a year like this is whether or not we consider the year a success or a failure? Some believe that anything short of winning the premiership is a failure. To them, only one team can have a successful year.

We have always taken a broader view, and in doing so it is hard to argue that our year was not successful, albeit one that had a very disappointing finish. We understand that some of our supporters see this differently and so we will return to this topic shortly.

This past year has seen considerable achievement for our club in many areas.

Thanks to you, our members, we achieved a record membership of 66,560.

The Club's operating profit before discontinued items, depreciation, amortization and asset gains was $2.6 million.

We launched our women's team into the AFLW and made it through to the preliminary final.

We continued to work very hard at building an organisation in which all of our staff are true to our club's mission and values. We are always looking to innovate and improve on what we do, both on and off the field. Endeavours such as women's football has made our club a better place in every way. We are proud of the way our women players have embraced the Geelong way.

Our work in the community space is part of what makes us unique. We genuinely wish to improve the lives of young people in our region and we touch the lives of thousands of young people in our region every year through our flagship programmes.

We opened our sensory inclusion room, the first of its kind in Australian sport, which now allows some people that had not previously been able to attend a day at the football to now come and enjoy the atmosphere at GMHBA Stadium. Other stadiums are now following our lead.

The Deakin Cats community centre continues to welcome around 20,000 users per year.

We ensured our stadium was free of gambling advertising. We reduced our reliance on gaming and are very close to totally exiting the gaming industry.

Our desire to exit gaming and gambling simply reflects doing what we believe is the right thing to do. In the years ahead revenue from these ventures will be seen in an even more negative light. We expect to be out of gaming and gambling by the end of the year, and at the same time will have retired all of our debt for the first time in around 50 years.

But back to football. As supporters we hunger for success – and that is reasonable. Clearly premierships are VERY hard to win because, on average, each club will win one flag every 18 years! Just how hard they are to win is perhaps best illustrated by the fact that the AFL's richest and biggest club, Collingwood, has won just two premierships in over 50 years.

The AFL's rules are deliberately stacked against successful teams. The strategy is to share success around – to handicap the top teams and to stop dynasties - and the AFL does this with 'equalization' policies like the draft and salary cap. Geelong, for example, because of its success, has had just one 'top 10' picks in the draft since 2006 – and that was number 10 in 2014.

Our club's ability to continue to challenge at the top end of the ladder while completely overhauling our list – we had just two players from our 2011 premiership side in our preliminary Final side this year – is a remarkable achievement by our football department. It is anything but easy to make the finals in such an even competition.

An AFL season is much like an attempt to reach the summit of Mount Everest. It is incredibly difficult to reach the top and if you think it is easy, you'll certainly die on the way. In football terms, this year we got very close to the summit of football's Mount Everest. We were 100 meters short.

To get close to the summit of Mt Everest, and even to fail to make the last 100 meters, you must get almost everything right. And so it is with football. To make the finals every year – without top draft picks and to run the eventual premiers close in the Preliminary Final - means that we are getting almost everything right. We now need to focus on the few things that we need to change or improve on. It certainly is not a case of throwing everything and everyone out of the door.

We will continue to push young players through while at the same time doing all that we can to contend. The alternative of dropping to near the bottom of the ladder while we rebuild is not what we will do.

And so, in summary, we are proud of what we have achieved – though also disappointed at getting so close. We are excited about what lies ahead for this group and we will work through calmly what we need to do to improve.

Our players, coaches and football department staff, led so very well by Joel Selwood, Chris Scott and Simon Lloyd, deserve a huge amount of credit for the efforts of our team. We are fortunate to have such great leaders in our club.

These are exciting times for our club. We thank you for your on-going support and assure you that we will continue to do all we can to achieve success in all aspects of our club, both on and off the field.

CHRIS SCOTT

At the end of every season we would obviously like to be celebrating the ultimate success. We fell a little short of that this year, but I want to say how proud we should all be of the efforts of our team.

This year we had a great group to work with and I believe that we know that we put everything into the season. This group was very invested in each other and in the club.

Our club has spoken often in the past of attempting to challenge for and win the Premiership while at the same time rebuilding our list. To compete and strive to achieve the ultimate success is what we will continue to do. We don't underestimate the challenge this presents having rebuilt our list. As it stands we have only 10 players remaining from our 2015 season as we continue to transition our playing list.

We all believe our supporters and members would rather we continue to challenge for the Premiership. In the modern era, there has come a time for most clubs when they accept they have to drop down the ladder and acquiesce to the AFL's equalisation measures.

I believe the year just gone was one that will stand us in great stead for the future.

There were so many newer players holding down key spots. This gets lost a little with our team, but we have seen so many players come through our system in recent years. This group is very resilient. They keep on pushing forward all year.

Inevitably at the end of the season some people depart the club. To those players, such as Tim Kelly, Zac Smith, Scott Selwood, Wylie Buzza, Jamaine Jones, Jordan Cunico and Lachie Henderson, and staff that have worked so hard to help us be a better team and a better club, thank you.

Chris Scott announces the winner of the 'Carji' Greeves Best & Fairest Medal (2019)

You will always be welcome here and hopefully you will have future success in everything you do in the coming years.

The VFL team led by Shane O'Bree featured many young players this year and provided a great development pathway. Over the years we have seen so many players progress through to the AFL team, and we believe that the grounding they receive in the VFL stands them in good stead when their chance comes at the higher level.

Our women's program continues to grow, and the first year of AFLW was a great success in every way. The players have embraced the Geelong ethos and to see them qualify for the finals in the first season was an exceptional effort. We all should look forward to continuing growth in our women's program. The VFL women's team also made the finals for the second year in a row, a fine result.

I would like to thank all those people that have supported the football program this year. In particular the families of our players and staff. We ask a lot during the season, and without the backing of those closest to us, it would be very difficult.

Thank you to our members and supporters that were with us all year. The support we receive is appreciated by our team and everyone at the club. It matters.

The Geelong Football Club is special. Anyone that has been here knows that. We are all lucky to be here together, working towards a common goal of success. Like everyone associated with the club, 2020 cannot get here quickly enough.

DEPARTURES

Lachie Henderson was not offered a playing contract for season 2020, which saw him depart GMHBA Stadium.

After playing 117 games and kicking 104 goals with Brisbane and Carlton, Henderson joined the Cats ahead of the 2016 season.

Henderson played 54 games in the navy & white hoops, the 29-year-old played in six finals across his four seasons with the club.

Geelong's Recruiting & List Manager Stephen Wells thanked Henderson for his efforts with the Cats.

"Lachie filled a number of roles with us and we wish him well in his future," Wells said.

"Lachie has shown himself to be a selfless clubman and a great team mate over his time with the Cats. He helped us win a lot of games and always took up whatever role we needed him to do."

Zac Smith

Zac Smith departed GMHBA Stadium after four seasons and 50 games with the Cats.

After beginning his AFL career with the Gold Coast Suns, Smith joined Geelong at the end of 2015 and will now return to where it all began with his wife and young daughter.

Geelong's General Manager of Football Simon Lloyd thanked Zac for his commitment to the club.

"Zac has been a terrific clubman over his time at Geelong. He is a person of great character, and his commitment and contribution to the club on and off field has been outstanding.

"We wish Zac, Aimee and Eden all the best as they make the move back to the Gold Coast."

Tim Kelly

Geelong agreed to a trade with the West Coast Eagles that saw Tim Kelly depart the club.

Kelly played 48 games in his two seasons at GMHBA Stadium. He was runner up in the Cats best & fairest in both years, was named in the 2019 All Australian team and ran fifth in the Brownlow Medal this year.

"We thank Tim for his two years with us and wish him well in the future, both in his football career and his family. Tim was obviously an exceptional player for us, but we are excited by the possibilities the draft picks we have secured offer us," Geelong's recruiting and list manager Stephen Wells said.

The Cats will receive selections 14, 24 and 37 in the 2019 AFL national draft and the Eagles first selection in the 2020 AFL national draft in return for Kelly, Geelong's pick 57 in the 2019 AFL national draft and a third-round selection in 2020.

Scott Selwood

Scott Selwood was not offered a playing contract for season 2020, which saw him depart GMHBA Stadium.

After an eight-year career and 135 games with the West Coast Eagles, Selwood arrived at Geelong during the trade period of 2015.

An outstanding clubman over his time at the Cats, Selwood played 34 games over four seasons in the blue and white hoops.

Selwood has retired from AFL football, taking up a role as Development Coach at Collingwood.

Geelong's General Manager of Football Simon Lloyd thanked Selwood for his service.

"Scott has been a much-loved member of the club over his four years here. The way in which he has conducted himself on and off the field, has earned him great respect from his teammates and coaches.

Jordan Cunico

Jordan Cunico was delisted by the club as seasons end.

Selected with the 59th pick in the 2014 national draft, Cunico debuted in round 10 of the 2017 season against Port Adelaide at GMHBA Stadium, a two-point win for the Cats.

He went on to play 15 games and kick two goals in the navy and white hoops.

Jamaine Jones

Jamaine Jones was informed post-season that he would not be offered a contract with the club moving forward.

Jones came to the club via the rookie draft, where he was selected at pick 48 in 2016. Jones made his AFL debut against Carlton in round 10 of 2018 and booted a goal with his first kick. Overall he played seven games and kicked four goals for the Cats.

Jones was a finalist for the Jim Stynes Community Leadership Award this year and was named the 2018 Club Community Champion for his work as an ambassador for Barwon Child Youth & Family's Foster Care Campaign as well as his work within the club's community programs.

Wylie Buzza

Wylie Buzza was not offered a playing contract for the 2020 season.

Selected by Geelong at pick 69 in the 2015 national draft, Buzza played nine AFL games for the Cats during his four years at the club.

His debut in round 15, 2017 was one to remember. A late inclusion to the side, Buzza shared his debut alongside Zach Guthrie and Sam Simpson, kicking two goals in the drawn game between the Cats and Giants.

Geelong's General Manager of Football Simon Lloyd thanked Wylie for his contribution to the club.

"Wylie's character and personality have seen him become a popular figure amongst his teammates, coaches and club staff over his four years here," Lloyd said.

"We thank Wylie for his contribution to the club, everyone at Geelong wishes him the best for the future."

ARRIVALS

Jack Steven

Jack Steven officially became a Cat after Geelong and St Kilda agreed on a deal during the trade period. The deal saw the Saints receive pick 58, obtained by the Cats through a trade with the Gold Coast Suns for ruckman Zac Smith.

Steven, a former Geelong Falcon, was selected by the Saints at pick 42 in the 2007 AFL national draft and debuted in round 19, 2009.

The 29-year-old midfielder has played 183 games for St Kilda over 12 seasons, winning the Trevor Barker Award as the team's best & fairest on four occasions - 2013, 2015, 2016, 2018.

A local of Lorne, Steven's move to Geelong will bring him back closer to family and the Surf Coast.

"We are very pleased to have this deal finalised, one which garnered a positive result for all players involved," Geelong's Recruiting and List Manager Stephen Wells said.

"Everyone at Geelong are looking forward to having Jack on board. Jack is a quality player and we are excited to be adding him to our playing list."

Josh Jenkins

Geelong welcomed Josh Jenkins to the club after a trade was struck with the Adelaide Crows. The Cats sent selection 37 in the 2019 national draft to Adelaide in exchange for Jenkins and a 2020 third round selection (on traded from Gold Coast).

"Josh will give us added depth and experience as a tall option," Geelong's Recruiting and List Manager Stephen Wells said.

"He has been a very good player for the Crows and he is looking forward to making a strong contribution for the Cats in the coming years."

Jenkins played 147 games and kicked 296 goals with Adelaide in eight seasons. He was named in the 2016 All Australian 40 player squad and helped Adelaide to the 2017 AFL grand final.

Jenkins has averaged over two goals per game in each of the past six years. Originally a rookie with Essendon, Jenkins was also an elite junior basketball player.

AFLW

Our club took another major step in 2019, running out in the AFLW competition for the first time. With 30 players chosen to represent us on this journey, along with fantastic support from our coaches and staff, the entire club and our wonderful supporters, the inaugural season turned into a memorable journey for us all.

A huge deal of credit belongs to our playing group, who came together to form a united and cohesive unit. We had a great blend of players that had been with us through our two VFLW seasons along with young draftees and players that had played with other AFLW clubs.

They all came together and embraced our club's ethos and represented us all so well. We all received great support from within and from our supporters, some new to our club and some that have been with us for many years.

To reach the preliminary final in our first season was a highlight, as was the opening game when nearly 20,000 came to GMHBA Stadium to cheer us on.

The wins were memorable obviously, but what we will all remember the most is the bonds formed in this incredible first season.

The challenge now is for us all to continue to grow as a team and again challenge at finals time. We have established benchmarks in how we go about our game and will do everything we can to improve year on year.

Thanks to all those that helped the team in 2019, and special thanks to all the family members that supported the players and staff. There is a huge commitment required to play at the highest level, and that means time away from loved ones. Their support is critical and without it we could not have achieved what we did this year.

We have begun the journey to the 2020 season and we are all excited by what lies ahead.

Season Wrap Up

After starting the season with a 1-4 win/loss ratio, the Cats turned things around to win 10 of the last 13 games to finish sixth on the VFL ladder.

A total of 49 players represented Geelong VFL over the course of 2019, 29 AFL listed and 21 VFL listed players. Across the year, AFL listed players made up 70% of the VFL team, the highest average across the past 10 years.

Led by co-captains James Tsitas and Aaron Black and coach Shane O'Bree, the VFL side played three AFL Curtain Raiser matches. Two of those at GMHBA Stadium, giving Cats fans the opportunity to cast their eye on the VFL side, and one at the MCG, the first Geelong VFL game at the ground in eight years.

After a strong finish to the home & away season, O'Bree's side entered the finals series with confidence only to suffer a crushing elimination final loss to Port Melbourne, the Cats going down by 40-points.

After the loss, O'Bree remained pleased with the development of his side's players throughout the season.

"I think the majority of our first-year players are more advanced than in previous years and it probably shows in the way that they played.

"We played some really good team football and it showed the development of the young guys."

VFL BEST & FAIREST

Sam Simpson capped off a brilliant season at VFL level, claiming the 2019 Geelong VFL Best & Fairest Award.

The midfielder tallied 366 votes to finish ahead of key forward Wylie Buzzza (329 votes).

It is the first season since 2014 where an AFL listed player has taken out the coveted prize.

Simpson played 19 games in 2019 and despite not featuring at AFL level, had undoubtedly his best season in the blue and white hoops.

The silky midfielder was a frequent name amongst the Cats' best performers each week, averaging 20 disposals and five tackles per game.

At VFL level, you'd be hard pressed to find a more efficient player than Simpson in traffic.

Sitting on par with Willy Wonka for the amount of candy sold while boasting a smart goal sense and impeccable footwork, Simpson has all the tools to be a quality midfielder for years to come.

Claiming a well-deserved runner-up position was key forward Wylie Buzzza.

The Cats' linchpin up forward, Buzza's status as cult hero of the VFL side continued to grow over an impressive 2019 campaign.

Buzza kicked 32 goals from 17 games and provided the side with a strong target, a booming left boot and a leader they could all rally behind.

Just behind Buzza was VFL listed pair Jackson McLachlan (328 votes) and Ben Reid (326).

Only three votes separate second and fourth, with Buzza leapfrogging the St. Joseph's duo in the Cats' final game of the season.

McLachlan's podium finish is a fantastic reward for a player who was in and out of the side in 2018 before becoming a permanent fixture this season.

A ruthless tackler and crafty goalkicker, McLachlan was one of the most exciting Cats to watch at VFL level this season.

With the surprising lack of injuries on Geelong's AFL list, keeping a spot was not an easy task for the VFL listed players but McLachlan's consistency ensured he was one of the first names picked each week.

The same can be said for running defender Ben Reid, who was back to his best in 2019, his third season on Geelong's VFL list.

A proven vote-getter, Reid claimed a top-two B&F finish in his debut 2017 season and is worthy of his place among the Bankers' top tier again.

Season Wrap Up

After a slow start to the season, the VFLW Cats stormed home to record eight wins for the season and qualify for a finals berth.

Led by coach Natalie Wood, the VFLW side enjoyed some big wins over the NT Thunder (43 points), Williamstown (46 points) and Carlton (33 points) to push them up into the finals equation.

The Cats took on Melbourne Uni in an elimination final in week one of the finals series with Melbourne Uni too strong, advancing to week two after a 13-point win.

Eventual best & fairest winner Becky Webster and runner up Amy McDonald enjoyed consistent seasons with McDonald's form earning her a position on the club's AFLW list for 2020.

Fellow VFLW players Madisen McGuire and Mia Skinner were also selected in October's AFLW draft by the club.

VFLW BEST & FAIREST

Rebecca Webster has capped off a stellar season by winning her first Geelong VFLW Best and Fairest award.

Webster tallied 262 votes to finish ahead of versatile forward Jordan Ivey (251 votes) and midfielder Amy McDonald (250) in Thursday evening's vote count.

It was a standout season for Webster, who also made her VFLW Team of the Year debut on the half-back flank.

The 18-year-old, who joined Geelong with pick seven in the 2018 AFLW draft, was named in the Cats' best players in 10 of her 13 matches in 2019. A skillful user of the ball and strong in one-on-one contests, the talented young gun averaged 17 disposals, four tackles and three clearances throughout the home-and-away season.

Runner-up Jordan Ivey consistently displayed her class and experience, featuring in Geelong's best in eight out of 10 matches. After a top 10 finish in Geelong's AFLW Best and Fairest earlier this year, the powerful forward also spent time in the midfield, kicking four goals and averaging 6.4 tackles per game.

Amy McDonald rounded out the top three finishing just one vote behind Ivey, improving on her 10th place finish in 2018.

It was a breakout season for McDonald, who earned her first VFLW Team of the Year selection after making a move to the midfield. McDonald missed just one game for the year, and averaged 17 disposals, 11 contested possessions and 3.5 clearances in her home-and-away games.

Geelong's leading goal kicker Madisen Maguire and tough contested player Madeline Keryk finished equal fourth on 239 votes.

Rocky Cranston (226), Sophie Van De Heuvel (219), Bec Goring (212), Kate Darby (209) and Rene Caris (207) rounded out the top 10.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

GEELONG CATS FOUNDATION

Our Ambition

Our Ambition forms the ongoing invitation to members, sponsors, supporters and the wider community to philanthropically invest and partner with the Geelong Cats. Opportunities to give towards Our Ambition are presented under three key pillars, each supporting various parts of our great Club.

OUR PAST HERITAGE

Ensuring our history is honoured and celebrated

OUR PRESENT COMMUNITY

Being a leader and giving back to our community

OUR FUTURE FOOTBALL

Developing the best facilities and talent

The Geelong Cats Foundation has provided 2,853 unique donors the opportunity to support initiatives within the Club, depending on the area of interest which resonates with the giver.

2019 is the fourth year of our five-year campaign 'Our Ambition Stage 4'. GMHBA Stadium has become the epicentre of sport within the region, with its state-of-the-art facilities that cater for our four football programs; AFL, AFLW, VFL & VFLW.

Due to the generosity of our supportive donors, Geelong footballers and local elite athletes are given the opportunity to strive for excellence using elite facilities.

In the second year of our three-year Community Challenge campaign, where we raised awareness and funds for our flagship programs. Whilst the programs are varied and target a range of ages and backgrounds, the over-arching theme is to educate and improve the health and wellbeing of youth. This year, the 'Healthy Food, Healthy Mood' pilot program was introduced, with 6,000 Foundation to Year Two students participating. The Geelong Cats and Kardinia Park Stadium Trust partner with Kulture City, a U.S not-for-profit organisation, to become Australia's first accredited sensory inclusive sporting venue, catering for people with sensory processing difficulties. We have continued to be committed to giving back to the community and making a significant difference in improving the health of the region's youth.

2019 was a momentous year for our football program with the inaugural Geelong Cats AFLW side's introduction into the three-year young league. The Foundation conducted a campaign to support the women's program and pathways, which resulted in $320,000 being raised for specialised high-performance equipment; player and staff development; and sports science equipment and initiatives. We are incredibly grateful for the donations our benefactors generously gave towards the women's football program as it has helped create a legitimate pathway for young girls to aspire to play AFL at the elite level.

Nurturing the Geelong Football Club's heritage is important as we strive to celebrate and honour those who have helped make this club so successful. This year, the Foundation raised $290,000 towards purchasing and displaying the inaugural Brownlow medal won by Geelong's Edward 'Carij' Greeves. The unique, solid-gold medal will be a permanent fixture for our supporters to admire and for future generations to be educated about our rich history. Again, our donors allowed this to happen and we greatly appreciate their contribution.

To all our donors who have supported the Foundation's campaigns and initiatives, thank-you for your ongoing support towards our great club in 2019. The Geelong Cats Foundation was established to provide the opportunity for generous givers to invest and be part of what makes this club so special - our past, our present and our future.
