

THE GEELONG FOOTBALL CLUB Awards Program.

The Geelong Football Club has a long and proud history which we celebrate in a number of ways including through our annual Awards program. The annual Awards program was created to ensure that the icons of our Club and of our great game of Aussie Rules are celebrated for their significant contribution as part of the team at the Geelong Football Club. We also participate in the annual AFL and Australian Football Awards program to assist with their program's success.

Our Guiding Principles (GPs) help to guide our decision making in all aspects of our daily work at the Club. In the context of the selection of appropriate Award nominees and recipients, each layer within the Governance responsibilities (HTH Working Group, Executive team and Board) should reflect on the nominee’s alignment to our GPs. They are:

- Team of all. (Legit inclusion. Diversity seekers. Collective Identity. Win Together.)
- Unlock excellence. (Progressive thinking. Fierce alignment. Energy management. Environment and edge.)
- Connected in calm & chaos. (Care for our culture. Clear communication. Assume good intent. Geelong Hospitality.)
- Kardinia spirit. (Embrace new dawns. Honour heritage. Service mindset. Humble custodians.)
- Be the catalyst. (Get in the equation. Awake and accountable. Seize opportunity. Make magic.)

Section One – Geelong Football Club Awards

R J Hickey Award

This Award is named in the honour of one of our great past Players, Premiership Coach and Captain Reg Hickey, whose contribution to the game of Australian Football and to the Geelong Football Club was profound over 3 + decades from 1926 to 1959. Hickey played a key role in four Geelong Premiership victories – one as a Player, one as Captain-Coach and two as a non-playing Coach. Hickey’s career matches tally for the Geelong Cats stood as a record for over 30 seasons (total Premiership 245 and Interstate 18).

Section Two – AFL and Australian Football Awards

John Kennedy Lifetime Achievement Award

The John Kennedy Lifetime Achievement Award is presented periodically to an individual who has made an extraordinary and positive contribution to the AFL competition and/or the game of Australian football as an administrator, media representative, player, coach or field umpire or any combination thereof. The award was introduced by the AFL Commission to recognise an individual who has made an extraordinary contribution to the game in multiple fields of endeavour and to honour the contribution of John Kennedy Snr to the game in a number of capacities.

Special considerations and guidelines:

- This Award is managed by the AFL and is not an automatically awarded on an annual basis. Therefore, the timing of this Award is at the AFL's discretion.
- According to the AFL, candidates with a history of extraordinary contributions to the game in more than one area of the game will be preferred over candidates whose contribution to the game has been in one field.
- The John Kennedy Lifetime Achievement award is one of the highest honours the League can bestow. As such the GFC nominee should be an individual not only for what they have contributed to but also for the manner in how they have conducted themselves.
- Nominations will be sought from the following:
 - Honouring the Hoops Working Group members
 - Executive Team
 - Board of Directors

Award presentations and entitlements:

- The timing, presentation and any entitlements of this Award is at the discretion of the AFL
- Should the GFC nominee be successful, any media will be coordinated between the AFL and the GFC marketing team.

- Nominations will be sought from the following:
 - Honouring the Hoops Working Group members
 - Executive Team
 - Board of Directors

Criteria:

As outlined by the AFL, "the Appointees may elect three Life Members in each year, the qualification for each of whom shall be that the person has been:

- a. Awarded the Charles Brownlow Medal on three occasions, or
- b. Has rendered special services to the League or to Football.

In addition to the Life Members elected as aforesaid, the Appointees may elect Life Members, the qualification for each being that the person has participated in not less than three hundred matches in any of the capacities of a player, a coach or a field umpire. For this purpose "matches" shall include all official matches of the League including Pre-Season, Home & Away and Finals matches and matches where the player has represented the League as a player in an Interstate or State of Origin Match.

A person shall not be deemed to have been elected as a Life Member unless he has completed an application for membership and delivered same to the Commission. A Life Member shall be elected by a three-fourths majority of Appointees present at the Annual General Meeting of the League. Notice of the Annual General Meeting of the League shall be sent to Life Members.

Life Members shall be entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting of the League. Save as aforesaid Life Members shall not be entitled to receive notice of meetings of the League nor to attend such meetings. Life Members shall not be entitled to vote at any meetings of the League".

Award presentations and entitlements:

- The timing, presentation and any entitlements of this Award is at the discretion of the AFL
- Should the GFC nominee/s be successful, any media will be coordinated between the AFL and the GFC marketing team.

Selection Criteria for Induction into the Hall of Fame (clause 8 in the Charter):

- 8.1 There shall be an additional category of inductees elected into the Hall of Fame known as “Pioneers”.
- 8.2 The classification of Pioneer will be applied to recognise and enshrine players, coaches, umpires, administrators and media representatives who have made a most significant contribution to the early development of the code of Australian Football since its inception in 1858.
- 8.3 “Early development” of Australian Football is taken to mean the foundation of the game in the colonies, states and territories of Australia.
- 8.4 The process for selecting and enshrining Pioneers shall be the same as the process for selecting and enshrining inductees.”

Award presentations and entitlements:

- The timing, presentation and any entitlements of this Award is at the discretion of the AFL
- Should the GFC nominee be successful, any media will be coordinated between the AFL and the GFC marketing team.

Section three – Nomination and selection process

Nomination process commences:

- a. As part of the HTH Working Group annual meeting schedule, the Awards Program is to be included as an Agenda item in the Working Groups last meeting of the year. This inclusion ensures that all Working Groups members are familiar with the information and process (in case that there is a change of Working Group membership).
- b. Minutes of Meetings are taken by a nominated staff member, usually the Honouring the Hoops Coordinator.
- c. In December of each year the nomination forms for all GFC, AFL and Australian Football Award categories are distributed by the Honouring the Hoops Coordinator with a closing date of February 15th as outlined in the Award criteria. This process may be scheduled at another time of year according to events planning and other factors

Nominations assessed against criteria:

- a. At a scheduled meeting the the Honouring The Hoops Working Group reviews the nominations and supporting documentation to ensure that nominees meet the category criteria
- b. Nominations from previous years are not automatically carried over to the next year.
- c. The HTH Working Group considers each nomination against the criteria and identifies their preferred nominee/s.
- d. Should the HTH Working Group not be able to narrow down to a single preferred nominee, then a short list can be developed for consideration in the next stage of the process.

HTH recommendations to the Executive Team:

- a. The HTH Working Group's preferred recipient (or a short list) for a GFC Award will be presented at the next Executive team meeting for deliberation and endorsement.
- b. In addition, the HTH Working Group's preferred nominee (or a short list) for an AFL or Australian Football Award will be presented to the Executive team for consideration.

Executive Team recommendations to the Board:

- a. The Executive team may elect not to support the HTH Working Group's recommendation, based on information that they may have access to, or knowledge of, and choose to recommend an alternative nominee to the Board.
- b. A report will be presented to the Board including the list of nominees and the selection criteria; plus any rationale if the Executive team does not support the HTH Working Group recommendations.

Board assess and endorse:

- a. During the next Board meeting (or another meeting depending on time available), the Board will review the final recommendation (from the Executive team), consider and endorse.
- b. The Board may elect not to support the Executive team's recommendation based on information that they are privy to. The decision will be conveyed to the HTH Working Group as deemed appropriate.
- c. The Board's process cannot be conducted by Circular Resolution.
- d. The Board's decision will be communicated to the HTH Working Group at their next scheduled meeting.

GFC Awards announced and celebrated:

- a. The process should be concluded no later than June each year to appropriately plan for the announcements and celebrations. The process may be scheduled at another time of year according to events planning and other factors.

AFL and Australian Football Award nominees submitted:

- a. The GFC nominations for the AFL and Australian Football Awards are submitted by a nominated staff member, usually the Honouring the Hoops Coordinator to align with the AFL requirements.
